

304 William Penn Lane
Suffolk, VA 23435

757.619.8561
hello@apricityhope.org
www.apricityhope.org

Dear Friend,

Five years ago, I dreamed of creating a space where families of all abilities could gather, connect, and feel hope again. That dream became Camp: HOPE FULL, and it has changed lives.

In 2025, more than 300 campers—children with rare diseases, disabilities, and medical complexities, along with their siblings, parents, and friends—joined us for concerts, campfires, crafts, and moments of pure joy. Families who are usually isolated found belonging. Parents left with restored strength. Children left with new friends.

This March 20–22, 2026, we celebrate our fifth Camp: HOPE FULL—our biggest yet. And here's where you come in.

Our auction and raffle are highlights of the weekend, raising vital funds that keep camp affordable (just $15–20 per person instead of $35 in past years) while supporting The Apricity Hope Project's year-round caregiver programs.

By donating a high-value item or experience, your business directly invests in hope. Families get a weekend of joy and belonging, and your generosity helps ensure no caregiver ever feels alone.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to create memories and impact through your gift.

Susan B. Geoghegan

Susan Geoghegan
Susan@apricityhope.org 757.619.8561
Founder & Executive Director
The Apricity Hope Project

Ready to contribute?

Simply call or email to let us know what you'd like to donate, and we'll coordinate the rest. Local items can be picked up at your convenience.

Make an impact on families with disabled children.

Join us on March 20-22, 2026 at Holiday TRAV-L Park in Virginia Beach, VA for AHP's fifth annual camp: HOPE FULL weekend!

About the Apricity Hope Project

AHP is a Virginia-based nonprofit that restores joy, hope, and belonging to families raising children with medically complex conditions. We do this through caregiver retreats, hospital go-bags, our When Autumn Comes podcast, and family events like Camp: HOPE FULL.

About Camp: HOPE FULL

Every Spring, families of all abilities gather in Virginia Beach, Virginia for a one-of-a-kind inclusive camp experience. In 2025, 300 campers joined us for concerts, campfires, crafts, and connection. Families who are often isolated found a place where they belonged—and left with renewed strength.

Camp: HOPE FULL is also The Apricity Hope Project's largest fundraiser of the year. The weekend includes meals, music, activities, and—one of the highlights—our auction and raffle. These fundraising moments are essential to keeping camp and resources affordable for families while sustaining our year-round caregiver programs.

Why We're Asking

The auction and raffle at Camp: HOPE FULL raise critical funds for our year-round caregiver programs. By donating an item, your business helps make camp possible and brings hope to families who need it most.

What We're Looking For:

We are seeking high-value, one-of-a-kind items and experiences that inspire excitement and generous bidding.

Examples include:

- Vacation home stays or timeshares
- Travel packages
- Concert, sports, or theater tickets
- Spa, golf, or adventure experiences
- Restaurant gift certificates ($100+)
- Specialty baskets or services (valued at $200+)
- Disability accessible activities, vacations, getaways

APRICITYHOPE.ORG -- SUSAN@APRICITYHOPE.ORG -- 757.619.8561

APRICITY HOPE PROJECT IS A 501(C)3 ORGANIZATION. EIN 88-3782747